Church Planning Seminar Saturday, January 18

We are in Phase 3 of our church planning. Our seminar on January 18 will look at what kind of ministry we think is important, while also helping us work through the process of planning for that ministry.

Summerlin Lutheran Church is a church made up of people. That's why it is called a congregation. It is your church, not the council's, or the pastor's, or the synod's. Our church will prosper or decline based upon what each individual member is willing to do to spread the Gospel. These planning sessions are a way that any member can be a part of this important process of planning.

Hope to see you there!!

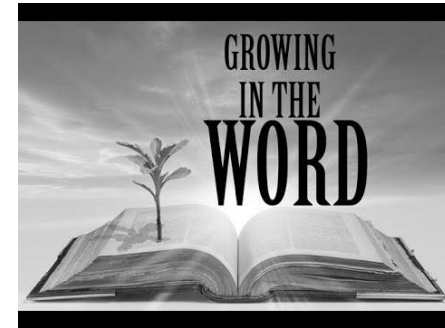

Church Open Forum Sunday January, 26 During Fellowship Hour

Updates on budget, events, and church planning

Another way we work and walk together as a congregation is to understand the many different parts of ministry. This is done when the council gives updates in the bulletin, gives announcements before or after church, and gives comprehensive information, like at an Open Forum.

The Council welcomes your questions and thoughts during these sessions.

Bible Study begins again this week.

Sunday Morning/ Faith and Fellowship Hour The Life of Christ

Jan 12: The Lord of all was born to save us

Jan 19: Our Servant stepped under the Law for us

Jan 26: Listen! God's Servant speaks with authority

Wednesday Morning 10:00 AM Romans

Jan 15: Romans 8: 18-39 Grace triumphs over suffering.

Jan 22: Romans 9:1-29 God's grace always triumphs.

Let's grow together through the precious Word of God.
